EASTERN TRACK WORK.

With the important Morris Park meeting dated to begin to-morrow some note of the training of the horses that will take part in its various events cannot fail to interest western readers. The following observations of Morning Telegraph's writer Kelston, will serve to give some idea of what is being done with the horses in training about New York.

"At Brighton Beach the going near the inner rail was somewhat lumpy, and I noticed that Lakeland's horses were exercised out on the middle of the track, where the going was much better. All of the string were out, but as the most of them were worked on Sunday they were restricted to trotting and cantering exercise.

"Hamburg trotted and cantered. As I stated a few days ago, no horse could be training and doing better than Hamburg, and those who have not seen the horse since last fall, will be astonished at the remarkable improvement he shows. Mr. Marcus Daly was at Brighton Beach a few days ago to have a look at his string, and, although he is a hard headed, practical man and not given to enthusing, he expressed himself as being delighted with Hamburg's remarkable improvement and his splendid condition. I had the privilege of looking the horse over in his stall yesterday morning after he had been done up, and it is not to be wondered at that all those identified with him are charmed with his appearance.

"It has not yet been decided whether Hamburg will be shipped to Morris Park in the latter part of the week with several others of the string or finish his preparation for the Belmont at his home quarters. Ogden and Isidor, both eligible for the Metropolitan Handicap, have done a lot of strong work. They will be asked a question today or tomorrow, when it will be decided whether they go to the post or not.

"Gold Car, certainly one of the handsomest 2-year-olds in training, is coming on all right, but is not being hurried in his preparation. Crocker, which was intended to represent Marcus Daly in the Juvenile, has had to be let up on account of bucked shins. This is unfortunate, as he had shown very well in his work.

"At Sheepshead Bay the track was in good condition and fast. 'Tom' Green's Fugleman, Loiterer and Tickler trotted and cantered. The 2-year-olds also trotted and cantered, after which St. Lorenzo, Warhead and Interferer breezed a quarter from the head of the stretch in 234. Interferer broke two lengths behind the others and finished first. He must have run the quarter in 234. As he had a lad on him that looked close to 130 pounds, there is no denying that this son of Meddler has a wonderful turn of speed. I called attention a few weeks ago to this colt and stated that I expected him to prove the best of the Keene string of 2-year-olds, and with no mishap he will prove to be so.

"W. Hayward sent Mont d'Or a mile in 1:49. The rest of the string trotted and cantered. Albert Cooper's Murillo did a steady mile and a half gallop. This horse improves all the time. He makes a slight noise but he has shown so much speed recently that he will win in fair company. It is intended to start him in the Withers, but in a strong run race from end to end I would not fancy him much.

"At Gravesend the track was in capital condition and fast, but the majority of the horses were restricted to useful exercise work. Hardy Campbell's Previous went a mile in 1:47 well in hand. It is extraordinary how his horse thrives and puts on flesh with his work. He looks a hundred pounds heavier than he did six weeks ago. Cleophus went six furlongs at a racing clip.

"Ed' Tiffen's Dr. Catlett and the rest of the string trotted and cantered. Dr. Catlett, which looks very well, will get his winding up work for the Metropolitan at turf headquarters on Thursday. The string will be shipped there to-morrow. His last work—a mile in 1:44—was done in good style, and even with 124 pounds to carry he will take some beating.

"At Morris Park useful exercise was mainly the order of the day. In J. W. Rogers' string Royal Stag breezed a half mile in 52 seconds. Walter Rollins sent Deerslayer a mile in 1:48, and Great Neck went five furlongs in 1:05. C. T. Patterson's Ornament, Algol and Macy trotted and cantered. Julius Bauer's string were all out and did useful exercise. Mr. A. H. Morris was present during the morning. In conversation with C. T. Patterson, Mr. Morris remarked that, both horses fit and well, he would like before the season is over to see The Friar and Ornament meet at two or two and a half miles, not for any big money, but just to demonstrate which is the best horse over a distance. Mr. Morris stated that he would be ready to make the match at any time during

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

During the past winter, while cleaning out an old lumber room, some Fair Grounds employees found a couple of old portraits. They were submitted to President Aull and identified as the pictures of early presidents of the association. This suggested the idea of making a collection of such portraits, and Mr. Aull has now completed it, and the pictures will hang in his office. The gallery includes the first president, J. Richard Barrett, who served from 1856 to 1859, inclusive; Andrew Harper, who served in 1860; Charles Todd, 1861 to 1865, inclusive; A. B. Barrett, 1866 to 1873; Julius S. Walsh, 1874 to 1877; Gerard B. Allen, 1878-79; Chas. Green 1880 to 1890; Rolla Wells, 1891 to 1893; Charles Clark, 1894; C. C. Maffitt, 1895-96; L. M. Rumsey, 1897; Robert Aull, incumbent. The association began racing on the big track on June 6, 1885. Of the presidents Andrew Harper, Charles Todd, A. B. Barrett (who was one of the best-liked mayors St. Louis ever had) and Gerard B. Allen are dead. J. Richard Barrett, the first president, now lives in New York, the others in St. Louis.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

GOOD RACING AT LAKESIDE.

The racing season in and about Chicago opened Thursday at Lakeside, Ind. The afternoon was cold and wet, but a crowd of nearly 2,000 was out. The track was fetlock deep in slush. The racing card was an evenly balanced one, and the sport of more than ordinary interest.

The syndicate betting system was in vogue and eleven books in the ring. The prices offered, however, were liberal, and the public had one of its winning days. Three of the races fell to odds-on favorites. The other winners, notably La Princesa and Richard J, were heavily played.

Dick Dwyer was rusty, the starts in the first and fourth races being as muddy as the track. The selling race disturbance conceived at Newport turned up at Lakeside. Two of the winners—Sunburst and King Barleycorn—were "raised." Sunburst was entered for $600. "Tony" McCafferty bid him up to $800. Mr. Cushing kept the horse. King Barleycorn was in at $500. It cost Eugene Leigh $405 to hold the colt. W. H. Laird was the bidder against him.

The sharp racing bits of the afternoon were Imp's runaway victory and Richard J's game race in the sixth event. Imp was naturally a 1 to 4 chance, and getting off in front, she ran away from her company, and going to the half in 494, had everything behind her leg weary.

After that the filly was eased, and was a dozen lengths to the good at the finish.

Dr. Sheppard and Myth had a hot contest for the place. The Doctor got it by a neck.

Richard J was a 3 to 1 chance in his race. Tom Collins and Abuse were the favorites at the average price of 8 to 5. The Morello colt got away last. Sullivan, who rode him, took matters coolly for the first half mile. In the stretch he called on Richard J sharply and the colt, having to deal with a tired lot, won as he chose by four lengths.

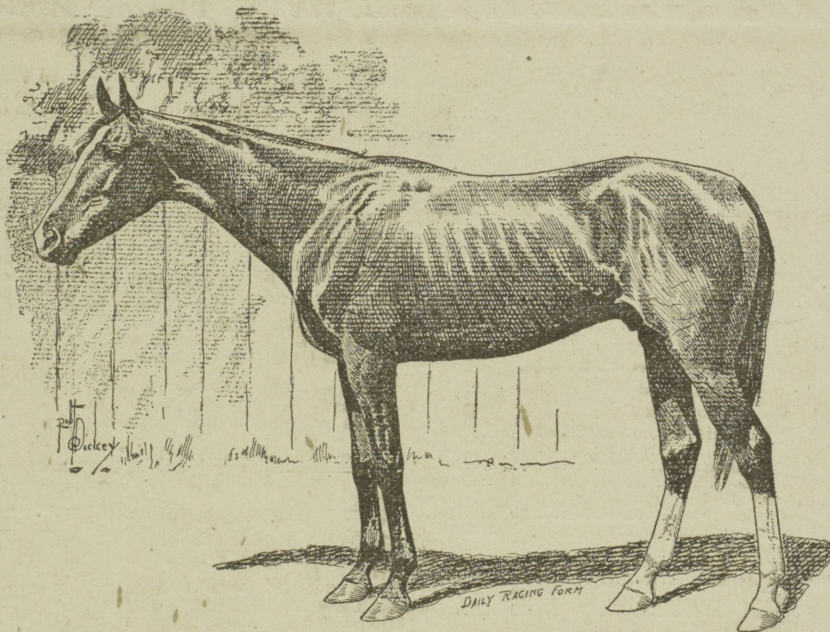

Eugene Leigh won both the two-year-old races with Black Venus and King Barleycorn. Both were odds on choices and both were heavily played.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Dr. Bernays is as enthusiastic as ever over his Bersan—Flying Rumor colt, which has been christened Flying Word. This youngster is a bay in color and is a well developed, substantially made colt. Dr. Bernays bought him last fall from Abe Cahn, and has him engaged in a large number of valuable stakes on the western and eastern circuits. Flying Word is in the Futurity. He will probably make his debut in the Kindergarten Stakes at the St. Louis Fair Grounds.

Ed Corrigan claimed Chihuahua out of the same selling race in which he lost Hurly Burly, but did not enjoy his new possession long. The first time Chihuahua ran in his new colors he landed second and was promptly claimed by Tom Cook. Mr. Corrigan protested the claim on the ground that Cook was acting for some one else but Cook has made affidavit that he made the claim for himself alone and so will probably keep the horse.

Frank Garner brings the news that Charley Slaughter has retired from the saddle, and returned to his home in Texas. Charley used to ride for Barney Schreiber of St. Louis. He was nearly killed by a fall from Mary Nance at the Fair Grounds last season and has not been right since. He started out to ride for his brother Elmer at Little Rock this spring, but had poor success and quit in disgust.—St. Louis Republic.

HAMBURG, BROWN COLT, BY HANOVER—LADY REEL.

the season when both horses are good. It is to be hoped that the owners of Ornament will also be willing.

"Walter Rollins' string trotted and cantered, after which Scotch Plaid and Arquebus went a mile, the latter handily in 1:46. The 2-year-old Armament worked over the last five furlongs of the Withers mile in 1:02. This colt is engaged in the Juvenile Stakes on Saturday and may take a lot of beating, as he is very fit. He is full brother of Rodermond, being by Tremont—Ormiel.

P. Wimmer arrived from Louisville yesterday with a string of nine horses, including the Metropolitan candidate, Ben Holladay, which, if he does all right after his trip, is a certain starter in the event. Mr. Wimmer tells me the horse is wonderfully well and very fit, so that even with the staidier of 126 pounds he may take a whole lot of beating, although this good son of Hanover would be better suited were the distance further. The other horses in the string are Westminster, 3; Mary Black, 3; Grysselle, 3; Yankee Man, 2; Koumiss, 2; Kinley Mack, 2; Macleod of Dare, 2, and chestnut filly, 2, by Candlemas—Racemeade."

Commenting on Wheel of Fortune's recent four-mile victory at Ingleside, the San Francisco Chronicle said: "Wheel of Fortune has been a great breadwinner for Joe Harvey, who purchased her at a Santa Anita sale for $500. The Ingleside stake was worth $4,000, of which amount $2,500 went to the first horse. At a rough estimate, Wheel of Fortune has won $20,000 in stakes and purses. She first gained fame by winning the first Burns $10,000 handicap in 1896, beating out Lovdal and Crescendo in the last few strides. She has not raced up to her usual form this year, and after her victory yesterday will doubtless be retired. "Butch" Fisher, who trains Wheel of Fortune, captured the same stake last year with Little Bob. This is one of the few cases where the lightning struck in the same place."

A special from New York says: "The new owners of Ornament and May Hempstead have taken them from Charley Patterson's charge and turned them over to Jimmy Rowe for training. This was not because of any disagreement between Messrs. Norton and Patterson, but in accordance with a plan determined on some time ago. Both horses have done well since their arrival at Gravesend.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Board of Stewards of the Pacific Coast Jockey Club, after a careful hearing, decided that there was no evidence against H. M. Mason that warranted his being denied the privileges of the track and notified Secretary Green that his entries were to be accepted. Judge Murphy put himself on record by voting against Mr. Mason's reinstatement. Mason was suspended at Oakland when Lobos won a two-year-old race and the matter was afterward referred to the Pacific Coast Jockey Club as the colt had run his previous race there. Judge Wilson said he had seen nothing wrong in his races and declined to take action, so the stewards finally took it up. It was said that Mason had raced the colt with lead boots and in shoes, but he proved to the satisfaction of the board that he did not run in shoes and did not wear any boots.—San Francisco Examiner.

Winner—B. f, 4, by Prince Royal—La Paloma.
Time, 25, 504, 1:054.

Post 8 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second hand ridden. Third and fourth driving. La Princessa was the best. She was away well and cleverly handled. Quaver had a lot of bad luck in the race. She was sharply cut off as the barrier rose and repeatedly interfered with throughout. Amy Wade was the victim of a bad ride. She was carried wide on the far turn and always took the long route. Ferryman II seemed lame in his preliminary but warmed out of it before the race. May Fern got a running start. She was short though, and it did her no good. She ran away three-sixteenths in a false break. Incetatus was a false alarm. He went all to pieces after going a half.

5488 SECOND RACE—1-2 Mile. Purse $400. 2-year-olds. Fillies. Allowances.

Winner—Blk. f, by Kantaka—Queenie.
Post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won easily after a little shaking up at the eighth pole; second and third were driving hard. Black Venus is a good filly and was in a soft spot. She can beat better ones and seems to like a route. Primavera ran a cracking, good race with the luck she had. Morgan got her into a jam on the far turn and could never get out until well straightened in the stretch. She was under hard punishment the last three furlongs. Grand March got away flying and showed a good turn of speed. Fox Chase had little or no speed. Vioris had a rough journey. Watch this filly. She is fit and can win at once. Rosavannah and Scatcohen acted green at the post. Eva Wilson ran a good race.

5489 THIRD RACE—1 1-16 Miles. Purse $400. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—B. h, 6, by Falsetto—Sunglam.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly. It was a long hard drive between four for the place. Sunburst was best ridden. He saved ground on all turns and was in the best going throughout. The track was just to his liking, too. Pop Dixon seemed to be going easiest at the furlong pole, but wobbled a trifle in the closing drive. He is a consistent performer. Arrezzo liked the soft track and showed a lot of speed. Moncreith seemed to sulk the first part of it, but finished with a rush. He was the best horse in the race and should win soon. Banquo II did not run his race. Neither did Bing Binger. Necedah was high in flesh and never a contender. Sunburst was run up $200 over his entered price and bought in by his owner.
Scratched—Bagpipe, 105; Onalaska, 108; Jack of Hearts, 104; Don Clarencio, 107; Dorothy III, 103.

Time, 24, 50, 1:03.

Winner—B. f. by Apache—Tyrola.
Start good. The first five were driving hard. Aprona was luckiest. Flandes the best. Rosa had a lot of bad fortune. Was generally unlucky and cut off at start and on stretch turns. Flandes was shut off in the back stretch and as the field spread at head of stretch. He ran a good race and but for bad riding would have won. The others outside Rose Maid, who isn't much, were outclassed.

Winner—B. c. 4, by Cavalier—Spinster.
Start good. Won in a gallop. Mussel was best and nicely ridden, and at too long a price. Zaraida ran her race. She was none too well handled. Neither was Millbrae, who hung at the end and likes distance off. Rebekah closed strong. Olivia was closing resolutely. Watch her. Carruthers' bellows needed repair after he had shown a lot of speed along the back stretch.

Time, 12, 24, 36, 49.

Winner—Br. f. by Stromboli—Guidon.
Start good. Won driving. Hard drive between next three. Banewor was full of speed and well ridden. She had a clear course and is fit. Is but a sprinter. Owyhee ran his race and had no excuses. He favors a distance. Canace ran below the mark. Was badly ridden. Throw out race and tab her. Sweet Cakes, off badly, was also sharply cut off in the spread of the field as it turned into the stretch. She about ran her race and is good.

Winner—Ch. h. 5, by St. Blaise—Round Dance.
Start good. Won easily; next five driving. The best horse won. Marco is fit and ran his race. Cochran ran shabbily. He is moody; but he is fit. Throw out the race and tab him. Metairie has had a lot of it. He seemed dull to-day. Was well ridden. Wawona is most uncertain. She was used too much for pacing and quit all over at finish. Do not take her off the tab. Coda ran her race. Was poorly ridden. Daylight was misused. He is ready to score among his own kind. Glenn sulked and was cut off on first turn in back stretch and on the turn for home.

Winner—B. c. by Fonso—Savannah.
Start good. The first three were ridden out. Only the luck of position and good riding enabled him to win. He is in good form. Recreation was badly ridden. So were La Goleta and Rosormonde. Allow for this in future calculation over all three. It was a smart race.

Time, 24, 49, 1:02, 1:14.

Winner—Ch. m. 5, by Rossington—Virginia Dare.
Start good. Hard drive for first and third positions. Miss Ross' race was above the mark. Zamar was far below it. The latter's only excuse was over the proposition of weight. Mistral, none too well ridden, finished strong. Ban was a good horse at the end. Watch him. Roadwarmer, used a lot, naturally quit in the stretch. He is only a sprinter. Trappean, Loch Ness and O'Fleta, all unlucky in early stages of race, were eased in final furlong.
Scratched—Chappie, 101; Howard, 103; Sly, 105; Peixotto, 106.
